1. Stasys ZAKEVICIUS @ ZYMANTAS @ BUTAUTAS is approximately 40 years of age. He graduated from the Kaunas High School and from the College of Law, University of Kaunas. About 1937-1938, subject studied in London, England, on a Rockefeller Scholarship. Upon returning to Lithuania, he became assistant professor of Law at the University of Lithuania. From 1941 to 1943 he was Dean of the Law College. The capitulation of Germany found Subject in Germany; and in 1946 he made his way to England. He remained in England for two years and emigrated to Sweden in 1948.

2. Subject is married to BIRZISKA, daughter of the former Rector of the University of Vilnius.

3. Politically, Subject is a liberal-socialist and was active in the Union of Combatants for the Liberation of Lithuania. Subject is thoroughly unwelcomed by VLK; and only Bronius BIELIUKAS-PACIULIS, the representative formerly of the Peasant Populist Union Party, ever expressed a desire to reach some agreement with him.

4. Subject has been described as: "an individual of unlimited personal ambitions, a political intruder, always looking for an opportunity to increase and exercise his personal powers."

5. With Estonian Major VALDIN and Latvian General TEPIERS, Subject forms the "Baltic Delegation" with which it is reported Swedish intelligence maintains liaison on operational matters.
